

The Washington Post

BY THOMAS HEATH June 20

Capital City Nurses, which provides nursing and assistance to seniors, opened a facility in Bethesda called the Cottage at Curry Manor. It is the company's first facility and is a big break with its past practices of providing in-home care for seniors in the Baltimore-Washington area. The company was founded in 1976 by Susan Rodgers, who took care of the elderly as a nurse. She also experienced it first-hand, when caring for a parent. It has 25 employees and is based in Bethesda. Nurses will be hosting an open house from 4 to 7 p.m., June 24.

http://www.washingtonpost.com/business/capitalbusiness/2014/06/20/32742d34-f5a9-11e3-a3a5-42be35962a52_story.html